try, that the movement of "the machine" to force a third term for General Grant—not because the country desires it, but because the machine desires it for its own purposes—we add our most earnest protest against his nomination.

The cry for strong military man is time of profound peace, the tacit admission that the Republican party has but one man capable of being its standard-bearer, call for a determined protest from all lovers of their country. We demand a strong civil administration, pledged to honesty, economy, and Civil Service reform, and shall only support a candidate free from tant or suspicion, and from corrupt associations. corrupt associations.

A committee of thirteen was then appointed by the chairman to consider and report a platform, all resolutions offered to be referred to the committee. Telegrams and letters from all parts of the country, expressing sympathy with the purposes of the Convention, were read. Among them were messages from Henry Randall Watte, of Wilmington; from a committee of prominent citizens of Wisconsin at Maduson; from Benjamin Butterworth, Member of Congress from Cincianati; from Thurlow Weed and the Rev. Henry Bellows, of New-York; from the Rev. Henry Bellows, of New-York; from the Rev. James Freeman Clarke, of Boston; from the Rev. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was adopted without debate. The first part of the report says 10 substance:

In pursuance of the demand and representing the convections of what we believe to be a majority of the Republican party throughout the Union, this Convention of Republicans has assembled for the purpose of declaring those convictions with reference to the present aspect of political affairs. This action is necessary, in view of the determined efferts to force upon the party the noncination of a candidate for the Presidency for a third term, in definice not only, of the traditions of the Government, but also of the solemn declarations of the Republican party through its conventions in the largest and controlling Republican States, realizined by its representatives in the popular branch of Congress, and adopted by the entire party in the declarations of its latest Presidential candidate. The report reaffirms achieved to the principles of the Republican party as therefore set forth by its authorized regressinatives, especially in the declarations of the New-York Republican Convention in 1875, and 1876, and the Ohio and Massachusetts Conventions in 1875, as well as the declarations of other States and the declaration, by an everwhelming majority, of the House of Representatives in 1875.

The nomination of a third-term caudidate, the report declares, will put the party on the defensive by reviving the memory of the public scandals and official corruptions which brought the party to the verge of ruin. The questions now at issue—finance, tariff, etc.—require a trained statesman for President. An additional objection to a third-term candidate is found in the fact that such a nomination would substitute a dengerous tendency to personal government for an unwarried effort for the true reform of civil service, which is vital to the welfare and safety of the republic.

The closing resolutions of the platform are as follows:

nal publishes a letter from Senator Robertson, in which he declares his determination to vote for Blaine on the first ballot at Chiengo. This letter and its approval by The Journal have caused a considerable stir among Republicans. is believed that Mr. Robertson's bold example will be imitated by other New-York delegates who are opposed to the nomination of ex-President Grant, and that it was taken in order to impart courage to al! delegates who are inclined to revolt against the unit rule.

Senators Robertson and Sessions have already expressed their intention to vote independently of the instruction, given at Utica. Two more delegates tollowed their example to-day. Senator Birdsall, hearing of Robertson's action went to him and said that he also intended to vote against Grant. Mr. Birdsall will vote for Sherman, as will probably his colleague from the Ist District, S. S. Hawkins. One he will vote against Grant. He declined, however, to state for whom he intended to vote.

Following is the text of Senator Robertson's letter:

Sir: May I avail myself of the columns of The Journal for reply to inquiries of friends from various parts of the State in researd to my course as a delegate to the Chicago Convention! The last Republican National Convention held that where a State Convention had instructed its delegation to vote as a unit, each Miclerate had the right to vote for his individual preference. With Republicans that decision is final, and the Utica Conrention had no power to everwheth, as well might the Beneral Term of the Supreme Court reverse the Judgment of the Court of Appeals.

The deligate-at-large are bound by the instructions of the State Convention. The destrict delegates are ander no such obligation. A district delegates should expresent the wishes of the Republicans of his district. The Republicans of my district, with great manimity, prefer James G. Blasne as the Republicans candidate for the Presidency, and with them in this respect I am in tail second.

On the first roll call at Chicago, and on each subsequent one till a nomination shall be made, I shall vote for James G. Blaine.
I shall vote for him because he is the choice of the Republicans of the district which I represent.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Great interest is felt and expressed by politicians in Washington in regard to the reports that a number of New-York delegates to the Chicago Convention have recently declared that they will not vote for General Grant's nomina-

In conversation with a TRIBUNE correspondent very recently a New-York delegate to Chicago, whose name has not been published among those who have declared against Grant, said that he had de up his mind to vote for Mr. Blaine. This gentleman, who has enjoyed the best opportunity to as-certain the sentiments of the members of the New-York delegation, said to the correspondent that, in his opinion, at least twenty-four of the delegates would refuse to obey the instructions of the Utica Convention. Several of them, he thought, would yote for Secretary Sherman, but the greater number would be for Mr. Blaine.

The same gentleman remarked that the apparent atrength of the revolt against a third term in Penn-tylvania had given great impetus to a similar move-ment in New-York.

A THIRD TERM IN THE ABSTRACT. The regular meeting of the Young Men's Republican Cinb was held last evening at Delmonton's, Fraderick G. Gedney, the president of the club, in the chair. About thirty new members were elected, and half as many proposed. The question submitted for discussion was: "Besolved, that the election of a

It was not allowed to treat the question except in the abstract. Among those who discussed it were Charles B. Samders, Justice Angel, Charles Unangst, Colonel Scott, and Messrs, Hill, Crawford, Wright, Baker and Sage. The majority was for the affirmative. The following resolution was substituted for the original and adopted: "I being the sens of this club th it the welfare of the country will be promoted by the success of the National Republican party, be it therefore resolved that we pledge ourselves to sustain the nominee of its Convention to be held at Carcago June 2, 1880."

[FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] ing reports have been affoat at the Capital during the past two or three days, in regard to the outcome of Senator J. D. Congressman Errett, who is in full sympathy with Mr Cameron, is said to have assured some of his colleagues in the House yesterday that the mission was a complete success. He said that the chief cause of discontent among the Philadelphia Republicans, and among the edelgates from that city, has been the appointment to important Feberal offices in the city of men from the interior of the Staty, to the exclusion of active party men in Philadelphia, delgation, Mr. Errett is reported to have said, declared to Senator Cameron, when they met, that nulces some new understanding was arrived at, and sundess the city Republicans could depend on having the Federal paironage in the city; then they would look to other alliances and would give their support to such persons as would give their support to such persons as would give their support to such persons as would give their support to they demanded. OHIO DEMOCRATS FOR THURMAN.

THE DELEGATES INSTRUCTED FOR THURMAN OUT OF

COURTESY-THE UNIT RULE ADDOCTED-JEWETT THE SECOND CHOICE.

COLUMBUS, May 6.—The Democratic Convention met here to-day. It adopted the unit rule, and instructed the delegates for Thurman. It is generally conceded that the Ohio Democracy thus did its duty to Allen G. Thurman, and discharged whatever debt of gratitude may have been due him. There is no denying on the part of the Democracy theuselves that the indorsement of Thurman was hollow, and the apparent enthusiasm of the Convenof the delegates from the XLIst District, ex-Sheriff tion in that respect a mockery in every particular, Daggett, of Brooklyn, also declared publicly that Thronghout the entire proceedings it was treated as a business matter that the Democracy of Ohio had come up to discharge its obligation to Thurman, and consequently it was one of the most unanimous and the greatest Democratic Conventions that this State has experienced in many years. Payne, Jewett and Tilden factions threw aside all desires and preferences and turned all action to securing the united indorsement of Thurman in the National Convention. The Payne and Jewett men were opposed to the unit rule, and voted in their delegations last night to oppose it strenuously, yet its adoption to-day met with no opposition, and not a word was ad vanced against the instructing resolution; but at no time was the mention of Mr. Thurman's name received with enthusiasm or even warmth, and at the close of the Convention there remained with the delegates no sense of satisfaction, except that of duty fulfilled.

There is no doubt that the second choice of the State is Jewett, with a respectful feeling toward Payne, of Chyahoga. Mr. Thiden's following is very slight and lies pineipally with the adherents of the Bishop faction who wish to see the ex-Governor available as a Vice-Presidential candidate. It is needless to say that the hopes of the faction were all but settled to-day by the adoption of the treathered rule. two-thirds rule.

two-thirds rule.

A ratification meeting held to-night by its lack of enthusiasm confirms the behef that Senator Thurmau will be supported by the Ohio delegation only so long as it is absolutely necessary.

The convention assembled at Comstock's Opera House, and was called to order by John J. Thompson. Frank Hurd, of Toledo, was temporary chairman. After a receas, George L. Converse, of Franklin County, was chosen permanent chairman, and W. J. Gleason, of Cuyaboga County, secretary.

THE PLATFORM. The following platform was adopted with cheers and without discussion t

Resolved, That, in order that Ohio may have the full influence and power in the National Democratic Convention to which her position in the Union entitles her, we hereby instruct the Ohio delegates to that Convention to east the vote of the State as a unit.

TWO IMPORTANT BILLS KILLED THE RESURVOIR REMOVAL BILL AND THE BILL TO TAX SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS DEFEATED.

FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE. ALBANY, May 6.-The Assembly finally passed judgment to-day on two bills which have elicited a good deal of interest. These were the bills for the removel of the Fifth Avenue Reservoir in New-York City and the bill prepared by the John Committee on Taxa-tion for the texation of the deposits in savings banks. Over the first-named bill there has raged a cent st of a very bitter nature between Sepator As: or and Assembly-man Mitchel:—both residents of the political district in

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

MENT-COURTESIES TO FOREIGN CLEEGYMEN. IBT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

CINCINNATI, May 6.—During the session of the General Conference to-day the Rev. Dr. McDonaid precipitated a spirited debate by introducing a resolution which provides for the appointment of a committee of thirteen to take into consideration the legislative department of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The business of this committee will be to inquire into and report some improved mothod of church legislation, and touch convenience in upon the practical pixty and destroites.

and to also report upon the practicability and destrible ness of dividing the General Conference into two legisla tive houses. A remark of Dr. McDonaid to the effect that before many years women will be members of the gen-eral Conference was received with hearty applause. The appointment of such a committee was ordered with one of the bishops as its ceanman. The Roy. William Arthur, of the British Wesleyan Conference, the Rev. Dr. Waltace McMillan, of the Irish Wesleyan Conference, the Rev. Dr. Heygood, of the Method at Episcopal Church South, the Rev. Dr. Johns, representative of the Presbyterian General Assembly, the Rev. Dr. Bidwell Lone, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Canada, the Rev. D. Wrightman, of the Methodist Church, Canada, the Reva. A public reception was this evening tendered to the British and Irish fraternal delegates at St. Paul's Church. The other fraternal delegates will be received at the same pince to-morrow evening. Much interest was created by the introduction of the following resolutions by the Rev. Dr. Millet:

Resolved, First. That the chairman of the Book Com-mittee to instructed to Inruish the Committee on the Book Conern all records of its transactions during the past four years, together with all reports, pivate and otherwise, of the book agents at New-York during the same time.

Second. That the Committee on Book Concern be instructed to inquire man the practicability and expe dency of consolidating the publishing interests of the Currel under one head.

The resolutions were carried and the second loadily pplanded. The subject of consolidating the two Book Concerns has not been brought up in any of the General Conferences since 1836. By a sturnlar coincidence the Conference that year was be'd in this city. The subject of consolidation was brought up at that time through the destruction of the New-York Concern a few months

The resolution was adopted.

In an informal talk at a meeting of the Committee on Engscaper the epinton was generally expressed that the Rev. Dr. Walven, of this city, the Rev. Dr. Foss, president of the Westcam University at Siddletown, Conn., the Rev. Dr. J. F. Hinnst, president of Drew Theological Seminary, and the Rev. Dr. H. W.
